

Children and sexual coercion and extortion

Children and adolescents are victims of tricks used to get intimate images or videos. They are then pressured to produce more material or meet face to face. This is online child sexual abuse, it is a crime.

Every step makes a difference

01

Explain children the risks and offer your support.

Watch out for possible warning signs.

02

If you find out about a case of sextortion, act now.

03

Report the dissemination of this type of content.

04

05

Call the helpline, Safer Internet Centre or law enforcement agency of your country.

What techniques do the offenders use?

They contact them in social networks, games, forums and apps.

They create a false feeling of friendship.

They send intimate images to encourage them to respond with the same material.

When they get the images, they threaten to publish them.

www.incibe.es/en/stop-child-abuse